

Testimonial – Green Earth Building Company

We recently contracted Green Earth Building Company, managed by Chad Lambert, to carry out extensive and challenging house renovations.

We found Chad to be very personable, always calm and methodical in his approach. He offered us helpful information and suggestions along the way.

Stand-out features of his work include:

- A wide range of practical skills, experience and knowledge;
- A very high standard of workmanship;
- A dedicated and conscientious work ethic;
- Great organisational skills;
- Meticulous and detailed paperwork;
- Regular follow-up calls, visits and emails;
- Safe and efficient work practices.

We are happy to recommend Chad and Green Earth Building Company to anyone searching for a reliable, courteous, honest and professional builder.
